

Brand Symposium

September 18, 2019

Our Campus, Our Story

Stories of Student Success

MISSOURI
S&T

Stories of Student Success

Stories of Faculty and Staff Contributions to Student Success

George Dean

James Grimm

Jack Ridley

Patty Frisbee

Louise Tucker

Challenging Stories

Eva Endurance Hirdler

EVA ENDURANCE HIRDLER,
St. Louis, Mo.

She needs no eulogy, she speaks for herself.

Washington University, '08, '09
Missouri Mining Association.

“Little Eva,” according to the St. Louis newspapers, is the only female mining engineer in the world. Has been with us two years and says she is sorry that it has not been four. Puts great dependence in her unlimited amount of nerve, and expects to operate a gold mine in California.

Challenging Stories

Jack Nomi

Challenging Stories

George Horne and Elmer Bell, Jr.

Stories of Miner Heroism in Battle

George A. Whiteman
Robert Silhavy

Stories of Tension Between Central Administration and the Rolla Campus

The Separation Crisis of the 1940s

Stories of Pranks

Story of a Tragic Scandal